ISSUES AND RISKS

The SDAP demonstrates clear strategic direction for embedding sustainable development into the work of DCSF, and includes an ambitious array of targets for policy delivery. It is clear that DCSF is taking sustainable development very seriously, and making excellent progress in this area. However there is a concern that many of the the actions contained within the delivery plans, which underpin the SDAP, are not SMART or outcome-focussed. While, the SDC understands that these actions are continually updated it is still important to ensure that appropriate and meaningful actions are outlined in the plans, even if they are only at the development stage.

DCSF'S RESPONSE

DCSF provided a response to our assessment on their website which is available to download from the 'SDAP update letter' link on the following webpage: <http://www.dcsf.gov.uk/aboutus/sd/actionplan.shtml>
